THE QURAN vs. THE BIBLE

The Quran: God is Merciful

In the name of Allah,
the Entirely Merciful, the Especially Merciful
(The opening 1:1).

Say, "O My servants who have transgressed against themselves [by sinning], do not despair of the mercy of Allah. Indeed, Allah forgives all sins. Indeed, it is He who is the Forgiving,
the Merciful." (Quran 39:53)

The Bible: God is holy

"You will not certainly die,"
the serpent said to the woman.

So the Lord God said to the serpent:
"Because you have done this,
I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers;
he will crush your head,
and you will strike his heel."

(Genesis 3: 4, 14-15)

The Quran says and supports the idea that God is merciful by his very nature. So, one can repent, and God forgives our sins immediately. The whole Quran is highly coherent with this idea.

The Bible teaches that God is Holy, i.e., totally intolerant to transgression, to sin. Thus, God forces us to drink the fruits of our sins, and we must die. Nevertheless, God promised to rise a salvation from God that will crush the head of the evil. Such salvation is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who died in place of us. In Jesus, we have pardon of sins and, hence, peace with God. But the serpent will persecute you. The whole Bible is highly coherent with this idea.

To decide where is the truth, do this: Look around yourself and decide: Do the consequences of our sins strongly impair your life and that of your beloved ones? If your answer is affirmative, the truth is in the Bible, and God is holy. If your answer is negative because the world is a paradise, the truth is in the Quran, and God is Entirely Merciful, Especially Merciful.
